DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS,
HARRISBURG, January 15, 1895.

To His Excellency ROBERT E. PATTISON,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: In compliance with the requirements of the Constitution, and the Acts of the General Assembly approved, respectively, April 9, 1870, May 15, 1874, June 4, 1883, and May 13, 1889, I have the honor to present you herewith, for transmission to the General Assembly, a report of this department, Part IV, Railway, Canal, Navigation, Telegraph and Telephone Companies, which, by law, are required to make annual reports to this department, for the year ending June 30, 1894.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
THOMAS J. STEWART,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

REPORT.

Although there has been some improvement, so far as promptitude is concerned in furnishing reports by the several classes of corporations whose operations are embodied in this volume, we regret the necessity of again making public mention of the delinquency of many of the companies whose duty in regard to reports is clearly defined by the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth. These delinquencies are so marked as to render it impossible to compile and publish this report within the time specified by law. The lack of promptness on the part of some of the corporations is a source of extra labor and expense and by delaying the publication of the report detracts from its value, besides impairing the public service of the department. Thousands of letters and telegrams have been written during the year to the corporations whose officials have been derelict in the preparation of their reports. As a rule, the corporations whose reports involve the greatest amount of labor are the most prompt in furnishing them. It may be said that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is not only exceedingly prompt in making its returns, but the data called for are always given full and concise, and their reports are in every way satisfactory. The magnitude of the work of this corporation in preparing this work can scarcely be comprehended. It not only prepares the reports of the "Pennsylvania Railroad Company" proper, but also the reports of fifty-two companies leased, operated or controlled by it.

In one case it was found necessary to certify a delinquent company to the Attorney General for the collection of the penalty provided for such delinquency. The Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company has for several years been derelict or exceedingly slow in making its reports. The continued negligence could no longer be tolerated, and, after furnishing it with the proper blanks for this year, sending several letters and telegrams regarding their report, a communication was addressed to the Attorney General, calling his attention to the delinquency, and requesting him to proceed at once to the collection of the penalty for failure to comply with the law. The proceedings in relation to certifying this corporation to the law department, the imposition of the penalty and the result reached, are shown in the copies of the papers published herewith.

December 3, 1894.

Hon. W. U. Hensel, Attorney General, Harrisburg, Pa.:

Dear Sir: By virtue of the provisions of the act of the General Assembly, approved May 13, 1889 (Pamphlet Laws, 202), the Secretary of Internal Affairs is required to furnish the railroad, canal, navigation, telegraph and telephone companies of the State on or before the first day of May, with blanks on which to make annual reports to the said Secretary of Internal Affairs. The same act provides that it shall be the duty of each railroad, canal, navigation, telegraph and telephone company to make and return to the Secretary of Internal Affairs a complete annual report according to the form furnished; that said report shall be attested by the oath or affirmation of two of the officers of the company, and shall be filed in the Department of Internal Affairs on or before the 31st day of August. This act also provides that if any railroad, canal, navigation, telegraph or telephone company shall refuse or neglect to make such report, and at the time specified, said delinquent company shall be liable to a penalty of five thousand dollars to the use of the Commonwealth for such refusal or neglect, said penalty to be sued for and collected in the same manner as debts of like amount are now by law recoverable.

The Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company, duly incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth, owns fifty-two and fourteen one-hundredths miles of road within the limits of Pennsylvania, and having been so incorporated and having constructed a road within the limits of the State is subject to the provisions of the law referred to, which requires a report to be made to the Secretary of Internal Affairs; but, notwithstanding such liability, the company for the year ending June 30, 1894, has failed to comply with the mandates of the law and has up to this time refused to make a report. The requirements of the law as to furnishing the company with blank forms on which to make report have been fully complied with by this department.

We transmit to you herewith a copy of the blank furnished the company (marked Exhibit A;) also a copy of the receipt signed by the secretary and treasurer showing that it was duly received (marked Exhibit B); also a copy of the notice sent the secretary and treasurer under date of July 27, calling attention to the fact that it was their duty to file this report (marked Exhibit C); also a copy of the delinquent notice sent the secretary and treasurer under date of September 20, asking that the report required by law be filed in this department immediately (marked Exhibit D); also a copy of the telegram sent the secretary and treasurer under date of November 15, again calling attention to the delinquency in filing the report (marked Exhibit E).

The Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company aforesaid, having neglected and refused to make the report to this department required by law, has set at defiance not only the rules of the department but the laws of the Commonwealth, and is, therefore, liable to the penalty provided by law for such neglect and refusal, and said penalty is hereby imposed for the reason hereinbefore stated, and the case, with the copies of papers mentioned, is hereby certified to your department that you may at once proceed against the said Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company for the collection, for the use of the Commonwealth, of the penalty provided for the violation of the law of the State.

Very truly yours,

THOS. J. STEWART,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

authority to act for the company or companies named.

EXHIBIT C.

Harrisburg, July 27, 1894.

John Fleming, Secretary and Treasurer, Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company, No. 56 Beaver street, New York, N. Y.:

Sir:—In compliance with the provisions of the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth, duplicate blank forms have been sent you upon which to make a report of the operations and affairs of your company for the fiscal year ending on the 30th of June, 1894.

Your attention is respectfully called to the extracts from the Constitution and laws printed on the back page of the cover of the form, especially to the Act of 1889, which establishes the fiscal year for reports, prescribes the time within which they must be made and fixes the penalty for a failure to comply with the law as to the character of report or the time for filing the same in this department.

Reliable information concerning the condition and development of the railways of the Commonwealth can be obtained by clear and comprehensive replies to the questions contained in these blanks. Great care in the preparation and revision of the report will be necessary in order that your company and the department may be relieved from much correspondence and inconvenience. All incorporated railway, canal, telegraph and telephone companies are required to make report on the blank forms furnished by this department; and in cases where the companies have been but recently chartered and the roads or lines not yet constructed, a partial report must be made, giving names of officers and directors, history of organization, capital stock (if any) and such other information as can be given.

Before forwarding the report it must be verified by the oath or affirmation of two of the following named officers: President, general manager, superintendent, sequestrator, secretary, treasurer or auditor.

The law and its administration imperatively requires that the report be filed in this department on or before the 31st day of August, 1894.

Respectfully,
ISAAC B. BROWN,
Deputy Secretary of Internal Affairs.

EXHIBIT D.

Harrisburg, September 20, 1894.

John Fleming, Secretary and Treasurer, Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company, No. 56 Beaver street, New York, N.Y.:

Dear Sir:—The report of you company, to the Secretary of Internal Affairs for the year ending June 30, 1894, which the law requires to be filed on or before August 31, has not yet been received.

Please give this important matter your immediate attention that there may be no further delay in presenting your report.

Should it be defective it will be returned for correction or completion.

Respectfully yours,
ISAAC B. BROWN,
Deputy Secretary of Internal Affairs.

Harrisburg, December 12, 1894.

Hon. T. J. Stewart, Secretary of Internal Affairs:

My Dear Sir:—I beg leave to herewith transmit to you an affidavit received from the president and vice president of the Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company, explaining why their report was not promptly made, and they privately write asking me to accept this affidavit and a report made to you in condonation of their offense.

Please advise me what you desire to be done in the matter, as I have notified them I have no authority to remit this fine and must be governed by your instructions. Kindly return me the enclosed affidavit with your advices.

Very truly yours,

W. U. HENSEL,
Attorney General.

STATE OF NEW YORK, }
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK. } ss.

Thomas P. Fowler and James E. Childs, being severally duly sworn, say that the said Thomas P. Fowler is president of the Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company, and the said James E. Childs is the vice president of said company; that John Fleming is the secretary of the said company and has been such for more than one year last past; that after the blank form of report to the Secretary of Internal Affairs of the State of Pennsylvania was received by said secretary, he was directed to prepare the report and forward the same to the proper officer. Said Fleming neglected to do so, although he reported to one of the officers of the company that he had done so.

Deponents further state that there was no intention on the part of the company, or officers thereof, to withhold or delay the report, and it was their intention that the same should be filed before the expiration of the time fixed by law.

Harrisburg, December 20, 1894.

Hon. W. U. Hensel, Attorney General, Harrisburg, Pa.:

Dear Sir:—On the 3d of December, 1894, we certified to you for collection the penalty imposed upon the Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company, for the failure to make the report required by the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth. On the 5th of December we acknowledged receipt of a report from said company, which we returned to the secretary for the reason that it came too late to be included in the annual report of the department, the manuscript of which was already in the hands of the printer, and for the additional reason that the delinquency of the company had been certified to you for your action. We have been furnished through your department with a petition signed and sworn to by Thomas B. Fowler, president, and James E. Childs, vice president, of the said company, in which, among other things, it is stated that there has been no desire on the part of the officers of the company to neglect the duty imposed by law in regard to making the report to this department; that upon the secretary of said company, Mr. John Fleming, a resident of New York city, was imposed the duty of making out and forwarding said report; that the said John Fleming had reported to the other officers of the company that the report had been made and forwarded and that the first knowledge that came to the petitioners regarding the delinquency of the company was the notification received through the public press to the effect that their company had been certified to the Attorney General for the collection of the penalty imposed as aforesaid. The department is also informed through the petition of Mr. Thomas B. Fowler, president, and James E. Childs, vice president, that the company has discharged the said John Fleming, secretary, from their employment for his failure to make the report referred to and for asserting that it had been made when, in fact, it had not.

For the reasons given in the petition the company ask to be relieved from the payment of the fine of $5,000 imposed upon them.

Before this department takes action in the matter it is desired that you inform us whether, under the circumstances and under the law providing for such penalty, this department has a right to relieve said corporation from the liability of paying the fine imposed upon them.

Very truly yours,
THOS. J. STEWART,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

Harrisburg, December 21, 1894.

Hon. Thos. J. Stewart, Secretary of Internal Affairs:

Dear Sir:—Your letter dated December 20, 1894, asking to be advised whether your department has a right to relieve the Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company from the liability of paying a penalty imposed of $5,000 under the Act of May 13, 1889, has been received. This act provides that every railroad company which shall refuse to make a report as provided, and at the time specified in the second section of the act, shall be liable to a penalty of $5,000, to be sued for and recovered as debts of like amount are or may be by law recoverable.

From the circumstances contained in your letter the failure to make said report was owing to the fact that John Fleming, the secretary of the company, informed the officers that the report had been mailed and filed; that the first knowledge the other officers of the company had that this was not done was a notice in the public press of this delinquency; that the company promptly acted on this information and filed the report and discharged the secretary from its employment for said neglect; and, further, that the company disclaimed any intention whatever of neglecting or refusing to comply with the law. This company has also communicated with this department in reference to this claim, and we are satisfied that the company has done all within its power to remedy the wrong done your department.

Under all the facts and circumstances in this case and the law applicable thereto, I advise you that in the exercise of your discretion, you have a right to relieve the company from the liability to the penalty provided in the said act of May 13, 1889.

Upon application this department will return to you the certificate for collection of said penalty sent by letter dated December 3, 1894.

Very truly yours,

JAS. A. STRANAHAN,

Deputy Attorney General.

Harrisburg, Pa., December 27, 1894.

Hon. James A. Stranahan, Deputy Attorney General, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:—We are in receipt of your letter of the 21st instant, regarding the delinquency of the Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company in the matter of making their report to this department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, and beg to say that as certain officers of the company have, by affidavit, indicated that they desired fully to comply with the law of the Commonwealth and the rules and regulations of this department, we respectfully request you to return to this department the certificate sent you in which the penalty of $5,000 was imposed upon said company, and we hereby withdraw from your hands the claim of the State for the penalty imposed on the company for neglect to file its report as aforesaid. We take this action in view of the fact that we have been advised by you that we have a right to withdraw the claim of the State made by this department against said company, and for the reason that it seems a hardship to impose the penalty upon the stockholders of the corporation on account of the negligence of a single officer of the company, who, through misrepresentation and neglect of duty made necessary this imposition of penalty.

While, of course, a corporation is made responsible by the acts of its agents, through whom alone it can act, in this case we think it advisable that you do not insist upon the collection of the penalty and you will, therefore, have the kindness to return the certificate as before indicated.

Very truly yours,

THOS. J. STEWART,

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

To the Hon. Thomas J. Stewart, Secretary of Internal Affairs of the State of Pennsylvania:

The petition of Thomas B. Fowler, president and James E. Childs, vice president of the Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company, respectfully represents that the railway of said company was leased to the New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company, a corporation of the State of New York, during the year 1890, and since that time has been operated by the said lessee company.

That during the year 1894 John Fleming was secretary and treasurer of the said Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company with his office in the city of New York, and said John Fleming, during the said year was also in the employ of said lessee company as a stock transfer clerk.

That during the said year, as your petitioners are informed, notices were sent by your department to said John Fleming for the reports for said Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company as required by law for the year ending June 30, 1894, and said John Fleming received said notices and also received the blanks for filing said report.

Your petitioners further say that John Fleming gave no notices whatever to your affiants that he had neglected or refused to make and file said report; but, on the contrary, informed R. D. Rickard, the secretary of the lessee company, that he had made out said report and sent it to your department.

That your petitioners never knew nor learned that said report had not been filed nor made out until they saw a newspaper account of the said neglect or refusal, and without awaiting any formal notice from your department, James E. Burr, a director of said company, and a resident of Carbondale, Pa., immediately went to Harrisburg and there learned that said company had neglected to file their said report.

That this is the first knowledge your petitioners had that said report had not been filed—that when said John Fleming was asked why said report had not been made out, he said he had forgotten it and had the report at his home. Your petitioners immediately made out said report and forwarded it to your department after knowledge of the default.

Your petitioners further say that after said neglect by said John Fleming they have discharged him from the employ of said company, as also from the employ of said lessee company—that they believed the requirements of the act of 1889 are reasonable and they disclaim any intention whatever, directly or indirectly, to fail to comply with the same. That said Thomas P. Fowler was elected president of said company in January last.

Your petitioners therefore say that they had no knowledge of the failure of said secretary to file said report, or no knowledge of notice to him to file the same, and, therefore, disclaim any intention or disposition in any way to violate the laws of the State of Pennsylvania or to comply with their requirements in this behalf. And, having acted promptly in this matter to remedy any wrong or neglect done by their said secretary, they respectfully request this department to relieve said railway from any liability in the premises, and they promise hereafter promptly to comply with the requirements of this department.

T. P. FOWLER,
J. E. CHILDS.

STATE OF NEW YORK, }
 CITY OF NEW YORK. } ss.

Thos. P. Fowler and James E. Childs, being duly sworn according to law, say that the facts set forth in above and foregoing petition are correct and true to the best of their knowledge, information and belief.

Hon. Thos. J. Stewart, Secretary of Internal Affairs:

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of yours of December 27, 1894, and, as requested, herewith return the certificate of the claim of the State for penalty imposed on the Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Railway Company for neglect to file its report.

Very truly yours,

JAS. A. STRANAHAN,
 Deputy Attorney General.

NECESSITY FOR A RAILWAY BUREAU.

In previous reports of this department attention has been called to the necessity that exists for additional legislation to provide for the establishment of a railway bureau in the Department of Internal Affairs. Although there may be no need of closer supervision of railways in regard to the adjustment of rates and the prevention of discrimination, there are reasons why the most thorough investigations should be made and rigid supervision exercised, in regard to railway accidents. No one will deny that an imperative duty devolves upon the government with reference to securing for the public safety in travel and freedom, so far as possible, from loss of life and limb. It cannot be denied that many of our railway corporations exhibit a degree of carelessness in the management and operation of their lines that greatly increases the hazards of travel. If, under the Constitution, no railway commission can be created independent of this department, it is certain that the scope of authority may be enlarged to an extent that would enable the department to take such action as would compel all railway companies to adopt all approved safety appliances in their equipment and exercise greater care for the safety of passengers. Whenever it can be ascertained that a railway corporation is reckless in management, authority should be given the department, or the railway bureau thereof, to make inspection of road-beds, bridges and equipment, and whenever deemed necessary power should be given to employ experienced engineers or other experts competent to pass upon and determine the safety of roads and equipments. This feature of railway supervision is a question of humanity, greater, indeed, than rights of property and the State ought not longer to disregard the plain and emphatic duty. Railways may object and, it must be admitted, with a degree of justness to the appointment of a railway commission clothed with arbitrary powers to adjust rates of transportation, but no humane or conscientious management could object to such provisions of law as will contribute to the protection of life and limb to both passengers and employes. It must be remembered that public corporations are within, and must continue to be within, the power of legislative action, for the power that can create a corporation and give it valuable franchises and rights can also supervise, regulate and control it to such an extent as may be necessary for the welfare, comfort and safety of the public. The power to legislate in the direction indicated will not be denied and cannot be objected to by those corporations that are foremost in conserving the interests of their patrons. In the report for the year ending June 30, 1893, reference at some length was made under the head of "accidents" to the duty of the Legislature in this direction. The results of last year, with the thousands killed and injured, only intensify the importance of this subject and call more imperatively for legislation that will check the havoc that is steadily increasing from year to year. We reprint the articles referred to, as we believe the subject cannot be too strongly emphasized.

While the urgency of a commission may not be so imperative in Pennsylvania as elsewhere, yet when we regard the safety of the passenger and the employe, and especially when we contemplate the long list of those reported killed and injured last year, it is apparent that such a commission, even in Pennsylvania, should be seriously considered by the Legislature. This view of the matter is emphasized when it is known that there are several lines of road in the State whose condition is such as to require State supervision, to the end that the bridges, road-beds and equipment may be put into serviceable and safe condition. An instance may be cited to prove the truth of this position. It occurred recently in the State of New York, where a board of railway commissioners exists, clothed with authority to stop the running of passenger trains whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners, the road-bed or equipment is in an unsafe or unserviceable condition, such as to endanger the lives and limbs of passengers and employes. Many of the roads in that state have lines running into Pennsylvania. So far as they are within the limits of New York they are subject to the supervision of the railway commission of that state; but in Pennsylvania they are exempt from such supervision. It is reasonable to conclude that if supervision is desirable in New York it is equally desirable in Pennsylvania. It is less than a year since a serious accident occurred on the line of one of these roads in New York state, which extends from the interior of the state across the line into Pennsylvania. It is reported that the commissioners of New York made an inspection of the road in their state and condemned portions of the bridges and road-bed as unsafe, and compelled the company to stop the running of passenger trains until the road and equipment were in better condition. This action on the part of the commissioners must be commended, and the public generally will endorse their action, as they were discharging a duty to the people of New York—a duty which no efficient and painstaking officer could disregard. The trains, however, continued to run over that portion of the road in this State, as no authority is conferred upon this department or any State officer to take similar action to that taken by the New York authorities.

In the insurance of property we find it classified with reference to the risk to be carried by the insurers. The good country farm houses, the isolated dwellings in cities, the well constructed brick, iron or stone stores of towns and cities are considered non-hazardous and good risks and are carried by the insurers at a very low rate of premium; while planing mills, frame rows and other property of an inammable character are risks classified as hazardous and extra-hazardous and are insured only at extraordinarily high rates, often tenfold more than the rates named on the other properties referred to. The most of our Pennsylvania railway lines belong to the safe class and the risk to life and limb of passengers is reduced to a minimum, but there are a few lines whose equipment, road-bed, bridges and tunnels are in such condition as to make the danger to passengers hazardous, often extra-hazardous, and yet the passenger pays the same rate over all our lines, or if there is any difference, the highest rates are paid over the lines whose condition is the worse. While this comparison may not be just a parallel one, it forcibly shows the existence of conditions that need correction. Again, in the insurance business rates are often adjusted with reference to the management of the business carried on in the property insured. The buildings may be of the non-hazardous class, and yet the business may be carried on by a reckless management—by men who take no care with regard to the prevention of fires. In such cases, the rates of the insurance are often double, and in many cases, the insurance of the property is declined by the conservative underwriter. So it is with railway management. There may be good equipment, excellent road-bed; but by defective and careless management the safety of passengers is endangered and traveling made hazardous. How very important, then, that the strong arm of the State should step in and demand a careful, cautious and conservative management, that the safety of the patrons of the road may be assured. Without any desire to single out any one of our railway corporations, either as an example or perfection on the one hand, or recklessness on the other, it may be said that the Pennsylvania railroad needs no supervision on the part of the State, with reference to management or condition of road. It is probable that the road most perfect in construction and equipment, able and aggressive in management, and yet strictly conservative, is the Pennsylvania railroad. It is scarcely possible to controvert this statement and, indeed the truthfulness of the proposition is universally admitted by those familiar with the various railway systems of the continent. So perfect in all its details, occupying the most advanced line in the way of improvements, conserving the interests of the shipper and the convenience of the traveler, this road, under its present management and organization, should be the pride of all our people.

The condition of this road and most of the others of the State is such as to render supervision almost unnecessary; but, unfortunately, as we have indicated, such favorable conditions do not exist in regard to all our lines, and the welfare of the people requires that there be either a commission constituted by law to exact further improvements from such companies to bring them up to a similar standard of safety and service, or power be given to some State officer that the same results may be attained. The Constitution of the State requires that the Secretary of Internal Affairs shall exercise a general supervision over the railways of the Commonwealth, subject to such regulations and alterations as shall be provided by law; and it may be a serious question whether, in view of this Constitutional mandate, a commission could be instituted independently of the Secretary of Internal Affairs. If this could not be done, specific and additional powers could be conferred upon the department, to the end that there shall be such exercise of authority and such supervision as may be necessary to insure the correction of some of the existing evils, and especially to require that railway corporations whose lines and equipment are unserviceable and unsafe, to make the needed improvements.

By an examination of the laws of several states we find that commissions exist clothed with greater or less powers. In most of the states that are empowered to exercise a rigid supervision over the railways regarding the adoption of every practicable device and precaution for the protection of human life. The Congress of the United States has passed stringent laws upon this subject, but as such laws can only apply to the operation of railways in the transportation of inter-state commerce, there is a work left to be done by the states within their respective limits. Massachusetts, always in the lead in the matter of wholesome legislation, many years ago, established a commission, and the results have been not only of inestimable value to the public, but it is also admitted that the railway interests have not in the least been crippled. On the contrary, it is claimed that they have been advanced. Similar conditions exist in other states, and when conservatism has characterized the administration of the railway commissions or bureaus, there has been a mutuality of interests that has proved the wisdom of such legislation.

The following states have railway commissions clothed with powers such as have been indicated: Indiana, two commissioners, at salary of $2,000 each; Iowa, three commissioners, $3,000 each; New York, three commissioners, $8,000 each; Minnesota, three commissioners, $3,000 each; California, three commissioners, $4,000 each; Virginia, one commissioner, $2,000; Texas, three commissioners, $4,000 each; Vermont, three commissioners, $8 per day each; Connecticut, three commissioners, $3,000 each; Michigan, three commissioners $10 per day each; Illinois, three commissioners, $3,500 each; Kentucky, three commissioners, $2,000 each; Wisconsin, one commissioner, $3,000; North Carolina, three commissioners, $2,000 each; Maine, three commissioners, $5 per day each; Ohio, one commissioner, $2,000; Massachusetts, three commissioners, chairman, $4,000, two others, $3,500 each; Kansas, three commissioners, $3,000 each; Mississippi, three commissioners, $2,500 each; Missouri, three commissioners, $3,000 each. Several other states also have commissions but we do not have at hand the laws giving the scope of their authority, the salaries paid or the number of commissioners. The number of steam railways in the states named varies from six in New Hampshire and North Dakota to perhaps 200 in New York, while in Pennsylvania the number reporting annually to this department is 400. The commissions in other states are provided with clerical assistance sufficient to transact the work of compilation of statistics and arrange the data for publication. In this department there are only two clerks to do this work, as the bureau is at present organized. That the force provided for a proper discharge of the duties imposed is strikingly apparent. There should be a chief officer of the railway bureau, two clerks and a stenographer. No one not familiar with the work to be done can comprehend the almost limitless correspondence necessary in connection with this bureau.

In the report for 1893 we said, "The person in charge of this work should be a man of the highest qualifications as a statistician, as well as being conversant with the affairs of railways, and the Legislature, at its next session, should provide for the establishment of a railway bureau in this department and the appointment of a chief, with a salary commensurate with the high degree of efficiency required for so responsible a position. In addition to this, provision should be made for such clerical assistance as may be necessary for the efficiency of the bureau and the good of the public service."

Such legislation as we have suggested cannot be too strongly urged and we trust that during the session of 1895 this subject will receive the conservative and considerate action of the Legislature.

CAPITALIZATION, STOCKS AND BONDS.

The total amount of stock authorized by law is reported at $1,099,303,383.42, and the capital stock outstanding at $944,670,893.64. In 1890 the amount of stock outstanding was $801,400,126.72; in 1891, $862,219,423.58; in 1892, $882,184,620.47; in 1893, $925,133,596.38. These figures indicate a gradual yearly increase, and show a total increase of $143,270,766.92. For some years past an effort has been made by the department to ascertain the amount of cash actually received from the stock outstanding but as the present officers of railway corporations have in most cases no information as to the actual amount that may have been so received, they, of course, have been reluctant to make affidavit to any statement regarding it, and, therefore, verified statements as to the actual cash received on stocks are, if made at all, given often in ambiguous terms and scarcely worthy of much credence. The law requires that the reports shall be verified by the affidavit of two of the leading officers of the company. Any deductions, therefore, that might be made from the fragmentary returns received by the department concerning the sale of stocks would be unreliable, and, if taken as a guide would be misleading. We have, therefore, in ascertaining the capitalization, taken the amount of capital stock outstanding as indicating the approximate amount paid in, and to this have added the amount of funded indebtedness. The bonded indebtedness in 1890 was $880,589,509.72; in 1891, $918,771,209.62; in 1892, $928,632,341.10; in 1893, $965,713,347.49; in 1894, $982,551,341.93, an increase in five years of $101,961,832.21. While there has been a steady increase in the bonded indebtedness the increase in the stock has been somewhat larger. It is a fact also that in each of the years named the bonded indebtedness is found to be greater than the capital stock outstanding. Combining these figures, indicating the capital stock outstanding and the bonded indebtedness, we have a total capitalization in 1890 of $1,681,989,636.44; in 1891, $1,780,990,633.20; in 1892, $1,810,816,961.57; in 1893, $1,890,846,943.87; in 1894, $1,927,222,235.57. From these figures it is apparent that within two years the total capitalization of the roads reporting to this department will amount to $2,000,000,000, which indicates the magnitude of the railway interests of Pennsylvania, when compared with the total capitalization of the railways of the United States, including the stock outstanding and bonded indebtedness, which together amount to about $10,000,000,000. In other words, the railway interests with which this department has to deal represent a capitalization equal to about one-fifth of the entire railway capitalization of the country. The total current liabilities are reported at $114,829,317.71, which when added to the bonded indebtedness of $982,551,341.93, makes a total of $1,097,380,659.64, or a total of stock outstanding, bonded indebtedness and current liabilities of $2,042,051,553.28.

Cost of Roads and Equipment.

During the year ending June 30, 1893, the amount expended in equipment, improvement of roads and construction was $39,517,077.07. During the year covered by this report the amount was $16,359,064.76. The total cost of roads and equipment, as reported to this department, is $1,538,501,235.29. The four roads showing the greatest expenditure in this direction are the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, the New York, Lake Erie and Western, the Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia and Reading. The following table, covering the years 1888 to 1894, inclusive, shows the amounts expended by these companies:

Lake Shore and Michigan Southern.	New York, Lake Erie and Western.
1888, $84,000,000 00	1888, $14,138,567 97

Equipment.

The number of locomotives reported in use during the year was 7,789, as against 7,504 last year; the number of cars in the passenger service was 6,670, as against 6,332 last year, a slight increase; the number of freight cars was 309,397. The total number of cars of all kinds in the public service, including those by the companies, was 341,756. The reports made to the Inter-State Commerce Commission for the year 1893, by the various railway companies of the United States, show the total number of locomotives in use to have been 34,788. The number of locomotives per 100 miles of road in Pennsylvania was 42, the number of passenger cars 36, and the number of freight cars 1,669. From the best information obtainable there are in the United States 20 locomotives, 18 passenger cars and 750 freight cars per 100 miles of road.

Employees.

As we have indicated in former reports, it is impossible for this department to ascertain the number of officials and employes on the railways whose employment is wholly within the State of Pennsylvania. It will be apparent to the careful observer that the railway business is of such a character as to render it impossible to know what portion of an official's or an employe's service should be charged to one state and what to another, when the road upon which he is employed passes through two or more states. It will, therefore, be understood that in giving the number of officers and employes the information does not indicate that they are all employed within this State, but merely on the railways that make reports to this department. For the year ending June 30, 1892, there were 213,573 officers and employes upon the roads thus reporting. For the year 1893 there were 200,158, and for the year 1894, 176,228; showing a decrease since last year of 23,930.

The number of persons employed on the railways of the country is a fairly sure indication of the prosperity or lack of prosperity that prevails in the commercial world, and the fact that in a single year there has been a falling off of nearly 25,000 in the number of employes of the railways mentioned in this report is evidence that this great industry is keeping pace with our other industries in their downward tendency.

For every 100 miles of road there were 951 persons employed, as against 1,105 last year, a decrease of 154. The five companies reporting the greatest number of employes were the Pennsylvania, 49,001, as against 54,611 last year; the Philadelphia and Reading 16,396, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern 13,385, the New York, Lake Erie and Western, 14,910, the Lehigh Valley, 15,713; a total of 109,405. Last year these roads reported 133,196.

Compensation of Employees.

Some of the railway companies fail to give detailed information regarding the total compensation paid employes, or the average amount paid them. As before stated, the number of employes during the year was 176,228, who received $99,683,991.55, an average per capita of $565.65. A similar computation made with reference to the returns for 1892, when there were 213,573 employes, who received $113,798,051.28, we find the average per capita compensation was $532.82. To those who do not make a study of the affect that times of depression have on the laboring classes, these figures may be somewhat startling, for it would seem that where so many persons are thrown out of employment, and the wages so generally decreased, that the average per capita compensation would be less than in times of greater prosperity. It must be remembered, however, that in times of depression, when persons are discharged from employment in the great industries, the most poorly paid are the first to be affected; the higher officials and the best paid employes are generally the last to have their wages lowered or to be entirely deprived of employment. Applying this theory to the employes of the railways, it will not be difficult to understand why the returns for the year just closed indicate a higher per capita compensation than do the returns for the year 1892.

The five companies employing the largest number of persons are the Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and Reading, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, the New York, Lake Erie and Western and the Lehigh Valley. During the year these companies employed 109,405 persons, or about 62 per cent. of the entire number reported to this department, to whom the compensation paid was $61,301,359.67; 61½ per cent. of the entire amount paid to all officers and employes of our railway systems. The following table shows the number of persons employed by the companies named, and the total compensation paid them during the years 1891, 1892, 1893 and 1894.

TRAIN MILEAGE.

Passenger Train Mileage.

The reports of the operating road show a passenger train mileage of 61,808,014 miles, as against 63,728,356 miles last year; a decrease of nearly two millions of miles. The increase of train mileage in 1892 over that of 1891 having been almost ten millions of miles, would indicate that train mileage has also been materially affected by the great depression throughout the country. The Pennsylvania railroad still shows the highest passenger train mileage, making a return for the year of 14,908,860 miles, as against 15,980,468 last year. The Philadelphia and Reading report 4,780,088, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, 5,080,095, the New York, Lake Erie and Western, 5,292,163, the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis, 4,617,460, making a total of 34,678,686, or more than half of the entire mileage reported.

Freight Train Mileage.

There has also been a decrease in the freight train mileage during the year, the returns showing 100,152,331, as against 114,524,930 last year, a decrease of 14,372,599 miles. The five roads reporting the greatest freight train mileage are the Pennsylvania, 20,450,3555, the Philadelphia and Reading, 8,238,877, the New York, Lake Erie and Western, 9,163,995 the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, 8,135,661, the Lehigh Valley, 11,854,902, a total of 57,793,790, as against 72,276,631 last year. These roads, it will be seen, all report a marked decrease. The total mileage of all trains, passenger and freight, is reported at 161,960,345, as against 178,530,853 last year.

Some inaccuracies may exist in these figures owing to the fact that in the reports of some of the companies no separate statement is kept of passenger and train mileage. The total mileage, however, is substantially correct.

Passenger Traffic.

The total number of passengers carried during the year was 134,798,580, as against 152,460,840 last year. The five companies carrying the greatest number of passengers were the Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia and Reading, the New York, Lake Erie and Western, the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore and the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis, which together carried 89,429,125, as against 105,396,590 last year. The decrease is made more marked when it is understood that the number carried during the year 1892 was 96,238,201. All these roads show a decided decrease. Some great changes are also noticeable in the average distance passengers were carried. For instance, the Philadelphia and Reading reported last year an average distance of 13 miles, while this year it reports 12 miles; the New York, Lake Erie and Western reported last year an average of 23 miles as against 24 miles; the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore 19 miles, as against 18 miles; the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis 25 miles, as against 35; the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, 47 miles as against 60 miles; the Pennsylvania reports the same average distance for the two years.

The five following companies show the greatest passenger earnings per mile of road: Schuylkill River East Side, $9,817.69; Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore, $7,604.14; Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, $8,078.23; Pennsylvania, $6,852.85; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, $7,728.65.

Freight Traffic.

Of all the deductions made in this report those that most clearly indicate the extent of the depression not only in our State, but in adjoining states as well, are the ones made from the returns relative to freight traffic, for wherever there is a marked falling off in the tonnage of the railways it is positive evidence that the commercial world is suffering to a greater or less degree from financial disturbances or other causes that produce great depression. The number of tons of freight carried during the year was 233,250,687, as against 281,681,030 last year, and 290,480,712 for the year 1892. The decrease in 1894 from the tonnage of 1893 is 48,430,343 tons. The number of tons carried one mile was 23,275,785,498; for last year, 27,860,894,938 tons. The receipts from this tonnage were $161,958,216.73, as against $191,392,514.51 last year; a decrease of $29,434,297.78. The five companies showing the greatest freight earnings per mile were the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, $28,897.85; Monogahela Connecting, $38,664.83; Lehigh and Susquehanna, $19,736.29; Philadelphia and Reading, $18,343.56; New York, Susquehanna and Western, $19,798.57. The five companies showing the greatest number of tons of freight carried, and the average distance hauled of one ton, were the Pennsylvania, 45,080,919 tons, average distance 144 miles; the Philadelphia and Reading, 18,611,841 tons, average distance 85 miles; the New York, Lake Erie and Western, 15,305,260 tons, average distance 155 miles; the Lehigh Valley, 12,542,341 tons, average distance 135 miles; the Northern Central, 11,643,186 tons, average distance 62 miles. The total number of tons carried by these roads during the year was 103,183,547, last year 137,356,818; the average distance of carrying one ton of freight was 116 miles, as against 130 miles last year.

DIFFERENT KINDS OF FREIGHT CARRIED.

Products of Agriculture.

There has been a material decrease in the number of tons of agricultural products carried during the year, the amount being 17,530,458 tons, as against 18,477,085 tons last year, a decrease of 946,627 tons. The tonnage last year showed a decrease of 697,641 from that of 1892. These figures indicate that the general depression of business has affected the farming interests as well as all others.

Products of Mines.

The tonnage from the mines for the year 1893 was 180,534,176. There should have been a material increase for 1894, but owing to the great depression there has been a falling off of the tonnage from the mines, the amount being 145,281,944 tons, a decrease of 35,252,232 tons, over 24 per cent. The Pennsylvania road carried 28,333,786 tons, the Philadelphia and Reading 12,993,210 tons, the New York Lake Erie and Western 9,824,832 tons, the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western 8,534,835 tons and the Lehigh Valley 8,865,981 tons. These roads are the heaviest shippers of the products of the mines.

Products of Forests.

During the year there were 13,562,458 tons carried of this class of freight, a decrease from last year of 3,040,018, or 23 per cent. Of this the Pennsylvania road carried 2,432,580 tons, the New York, Lake Erie and Western 1,049,075 tons, the Northern Central 1,015,015 tons, the Philadelphia and Reading 774,845 tons, the Western New York and Pennsylvania 915,824 tons, a total of 6,187,340 tons, or about half of the entire tonnage.

Products of Manufactures.

This tonnage for the year was 31,491,322, as against 40,147,802 tons last year. The Allegheny Valley, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, New York, Lake Erie and Western, Northern Central, Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and Reading, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis and Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago each carried upwards of 1,000,000 tons, the Pennsylvania alone having carried 8,733,837 tons.

Miscellaneous Merchandise.

A remarkable decrease is found in the tonnage of this class of freight, the amount this year being 16,104,362 tons, as against 25,911,492 tons last year, a decrease of 9,807,130 tons.

Combining these figures with reference to the tonnage from the several sources indicated, embraced in the tabulation in the back of the report, we find that for the year 1893 there were shipped 281,673,031 tons, while for the present year the tonnage has been only 230,358,659 tons, a decrease of 51,314,372 tons, or about 22 per cent. The returns as they appear in the report for last year show an increase of 18,339,727 tons, or about 7 per cent. over the preceding year, and for the year 1892 there was an increase of 24,500,000 tons, or about 10 per cent. over 1891.

Rates of Transportation.

The tendency, as we have clearly shown in former reports, seems to be downward, both as regards passenger and freight rates. The following table will show the rate charged per ton per mile during the years 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893 and 1894 by the companies named.

NAMES OF COMPANIES.	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.	1894.
Pennsylvania, . . . . .	.641	.656	.647	.620	.607
Philadelphia and Reading, . . . . .	1.000	1.025	.877	.906	1.025
Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg, . . . . .	.654	.595	.594	.554	.538
Cumberland Valley, . . . . .	1.199	1.241	1.285	1.206	1.152
Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, . . . . .	.979	.916	.923	.938	.922
New York, Lake Erie and Western, . . . . .	.663	.658	.629	.655	.630
Northern Central, . . . . .	.605	.602	.604	.601	.612
Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore, . . . . .	1.356	1.356	1.417	1.321	1.400
Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis, . . . . .	.615	.709	.682	.685	.649
Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, . . . . .	.644	.630	.602	.599	.587

A study of these figures is interesting, as they show that in two or three instances, especially that of the Philadelphia and Reading road, there are some marked discrepancies in the average rates received in the years mentioned. While in most cases there has been a decrease from year to year, in the case of this particular road there have been some decided increases, but it is possible that these figures are not absolutely reliable. In fact it is a serious question whether defective book-keeping is not responsible for some of the results appearing in these tables. Last year the rate of the Pennsylvania road .620 per ton per mile; for the present year .607, a decrease of .013. This reduction although slight, when applied to the vast tonnage of this road, amounts to many hundreds of thousands of dollars. As we have shown in former reports, the rates of the railways in Pennsylvania, as well as those throughout the United States, are much more favorable to the shipper than the rates of the railways of any other nation. It should also be remembered that in countries more thickly populated than ours, the advantages enjoyed by the railroad companies are much greater than those enjoyed here. In view of this fact the low rates that prevail here are all the more remarkable and ought to be highly appreciated, not only by the shipper but by the public generally. The following table shows the average rate received by the companies named for the transportation of passengers:

NAMES OF COMPANIES.	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.	1894.

* The Philadelphia and Reading rates for 1891 and 1893 differ so materially from the rates for 1890 and 1892, that they would seem to be erroneous. However, they are given precisely as reported by the company.

A study of this table will be convincing proof that the tendency of passenger rates, as well as freight rates, is gradually downward.

Earnings.

The total passenger earnings for the year were $67,815,968.04; total freight earnings, $166,711,253.46; other earnings, $3,510,307.67; making a grand total of $238,037,529.17, as against $277,537,303.90 for last year. Examining the earnings of some of these companies in detail we find that the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh received $2,704,458.74 from all sources, as against $3,215,291.76 last year; the Cumberland Valley received $818,331.02, as against $953,349.08; Lake Shore and Michigan Southern received $21,675,051.33, as against $24,046,875.75; New York, Lake Erie and Western received $27,047,113.62, as against $31,289,979.80. A comparison of the receipts of the Pennsylvania for the past several years is interesting. In 1890 they were $71,093,629.36; in 1891, $71,176,830.07; in 1892, $74,213,020.41; in 1893, $76,011,102.10; in 1894, $63,854,054.18. If there had been a continued increase in the volume of business done in the country, the earnings of this road ought to have been about $80,000,000, but instead of this there has been a falling off of several millions from the earnings of 1890. In former reports we made comparisons with reference to the receipts of the railways throughout the United States from the returns received by the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The returns at hand from the commission from the last year are somewhat fragmentary and of so meagre a character as to render comparisons of little value and possibly misleading. It is safe to assume that the roads throughout the country are affected to about the same degree as those within the limits of Pennsylvania. Sixty-one per cent. of the receipts of the roads in Pennsylvania is from freight traffic, and 25 per cent. from passenger traffic.

Accidents.

The returns show the number of passengers killed during the year to be 37, as against 79 last year; the number injured, 703, as against 779. One passenger was killed out of every 3,643,205 carried, and one injured out of every 191,747. Last year there was one killed out of every 1,929,884 carried, and one injured out of every 195,713. Of the employes there were 399 killed and 6,519 injured, as against 650 killed and 8,848 injured last year. The other persons killed and injured were in large part trespassers. During the year there were, of these persons, 983 killed and 1,447 injured, as against 1,099 killed and 1,495 injured last year. From these returns we find that of all classes, passengers, employes and other persons, there were 1,419 killed and 8,669 injured, as against 1,828 killed and 11,122 injured last year. Eight persons have been killed and 47 injured to every 100 miles of road operated. Of the larger roads the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh have had 18 killed and 211 injured; the New York, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis, 1 killed and 20 injured; the Pennsylvania, 13 passengers killed and 349 injured; employes, 117 killed and 2,395 injured; other persons, 339 killed and 561 injured, a total of 469 killed and 3,305 injured. While these figures indicate great havoc, yet so far as this company is concerned there has been a decrease in the number of killed of 157 and in the number of injured of 1,044. The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis report 120 killed and 1,591 injured. Of the killed one was a passenger, 33 employes and 86 other persons; of the injured 54 were passengers, 1,349 employes and 188 other persons. The Philadelphia and Reading reported 188 killed and 999 injured. Of the killed, 2 were passengers, 71 employes and 115 other persons; of the injured 82 were passengers, 779 employes and 138 other persons.

Railways and the Industrial Depression.

In no state of the Union does an era of industrial depression so seriously affect railway interests as it does in Pennsylvania. The reasons are apparent and are clearly shown in the tables hereinafter printed, giving the tonnage from the mines, forests and manufactures. With closed mills and factories, or running on short hours, there is, of course, a great falling off in the tonnage of manufactured goods, and closed factories means a lessened tonnage from the mines. As these interests are greater in Pennsylvania than in any other state it is easily seen how seriously railway interests here have been affected by the present general and almost unprecedented industrial depression. In the United States there are now 156 operating roads in the hands of receivers, of which 106 passed from the control of the shareholders to the possession of the bondholders during the year covered by this report. The capitalization of these roads is upwards of two and one-half billions of dollars, or more than one-fourth of the entire capitalization of the railway interests of the country. Of course, many of these roads were burdened with a bonded indebtedness too great to bear even in times of prosperity, but it is an unfortunate commentary to make that within a single year the general financial and industrial conditions of this nation have been such as to drive into bankruptcy so great a portion of our railway interests, and bring destruction and irreparable injury to people in all kinds of business.

Railroad Reports Destroyed by Fire.

On the night of the 9th of February the State printing house, with all its contents, was totally destroyed by fire. At the time of the fire the annual railroad report of the Department of Internal Affairs for the year ending June 30, 1894, was in course of publication, and about 154 pages had been printed. There were, therefore, a large number of the original reports of railroad companies in possession of the printer at the time, all of which were destroyed. The names of the companies, whose reports were burned, are herewith given:

Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company.

Lehigh and Lackawanna Railroad Company.

The whole number of reports burned was 159. It will readily be seen that their destruction was a great loss to the department and necessitated much extra time and work to repair the damage done. As soon as possible after the fire a letter was addressed to the different railroad companies whose reports were destroyed, asking their assistance in again making the file of the department complete.

It is customary for the department to send duplicate blanks to the railway companies on which to make their reports, one copy to be forwarded to the department and the other retained in the office of the company. In view of this fact we wrote to the companies whose reports had been destroyed, suggesting three plans of replacing them. First, that we send two employes from the department to make copies of the duplicates. Second, that the duplicates be sent to this department to be copied here. Third, that we furnish the companies with blanks and they make the copies and forward them to the department.

Nearly all the companies made prompt reply, and a majority of them offered to make the copies. In some cases, however, we sent employes from the department to do the work. With two exceptions all the missing reports have been supplied.

The destruction of these reports and that portion of our annual report that had already been printed has resulted in delaying the presentation of the report to the Governor and the Legislature and its distribution to the public. Now, however, the data having all been compiled and the missing reports furnished, the work of re-printing is progressing rapidly, and we are assured that the annual report will be ready for distribution by the middle of June.

The substitutes for the original reports will be bound and kept in the department the same as the original reports are kept, and a certificate will be attached to each one showing that the original was destroyed by fire and that the copy has been procured to supply its place.

* The apparent decrease in the number of cars in use is accounted for from the fact that a number of companies gave that item in their reports of last year, but failed to do so for the present year. There has no doubt been a considerable increase of the number of cars in use over the previous year.

† Horse cars are fast going out of use; hence the decrease in the number of horses and mules.

QUESTIONS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION.

What station houses, stock yards, or other terminal facilities, does this road use for which it pays a rental? Name the parties to whom such property belongs: Harrisburg Passenger Station owned by Pennsylvania Railroad Company

DELAWARE AND HUDSON CANAL COMPANY.

As understood by the officers of the company, the blank form prescribed by the Department of Internal Affairs, contemplates the report of the capital stock, debt and operations of the railroads of the company in Pennsylvania.

This company owns or leases and operates a number of railroads in other states and a canal partly in Pennsylvania and partly in New York, and it also owns coal lands in Pennsylvania from which it mines coal. Its railroads in Pennsylvania were built and are used chiefly for the transportation to market of the company's coal. For these and other reasons, it is impossible to make an entirely accurate and satisfactory return of the affairs of those lines as separated from the other lines and business of the company.

The whole capital stock and indebtedness of the company are given, as they cannot be separated, and any part thereof applied to any particular part of the company's property. The receipts given are those of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and not including the transportation of the company's own property, while the expenses necessarily include the entire cost of operating the line.

Date of organization: April 23, 1823.

CONTRACTS, AGREEMENTS, ETC.

The National Express Company has by contract the right to handle express matter on the line of the road.

Mails are carried at the rate fixed by the Postoffice department.

Joint freight traffic agreements exist with the following named companies, the revenue being divided on the basis of mileage: New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, New York, Susquehanna and Western Railroad Company.

Contracts giving this company trackage rights on other roads are in force with the companies named below: New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company (Jefferson Branch), Central Railroad Company of New Jersey (Nanticoke Railroad), Lehigh Valley Railroad Company (through Lehigh Valley Yard at Wilkes-Barre), Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company (Plymouth Junction to Bull Run and passenger tracks at Scranton).

A contract with the Central Railroad of New Jersey, gives that company the right to use our tracks between Mill Creek and Union Junction.

An agreement with Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company gives that company the right to use our tracks, for coal only, between Vine street, Scranton, and Green Ridge.

An agreement with the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company gives that company trackage rights on our road, for coal only, between South Wilkes-Barre and Plymouth Junction.

CONTRACTS, AGREEMENTS, ETC.

Express: The Adams Express Company pays this company 40 per cent. of its gross receipts from general traffic and 70 per cent. of gross receipts from oyster traffic.

Mails: The compensation for transportation of mails is a fixed annual rate per mile of road, determined by the extent of the service performed, based upon the actual weight of mails carried, for thirty consecutive days during each quadrennial period.

Freight or transportation companies or lines: The Star Union Line transacts business at current rates, the expenses of conducting the same being borne by the roads over which it operates, in the proportion of the earnings therefrom of each to the whole. Customary rates are also paid for the use of the Union Line cars.

Other Railroad Companies: Rentals are received and paid under contracts with other companies.

Telegraph companies: The Western Union Telegraph Company pays a fixed sum for certain telegraph privileges and also receives a proportion of receipts and pays a proportion of the expenses of the telegraph line, located on the line of Erie and Pittsburgh Railroad.

Other contracts: The Union News Company pays a fixed rental for certain privileges granted.

The Travelers' Insurance Company pays a proportion of its gross receipts at sundry stations for privileges and facilities granted thereat.

CONTRACTS, AGREEMENTS, ETC.

The mails are carried for Elisha K. Kane, sub-contractor of star-route, this company receiving $10.00 per month total amount of compensation under his sub-contract.

We have tariffs in force with the B. R. & P. Ry. Co. allowing us 25 cents per ton on lumber shipments from Kushequa, and tariffs in force with the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company allowing use proportions of through rate which vary according to the length of haul received by the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad and the destination. We have a contract to ship such freight by the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad as far as lawfully may be, provided the rates are the same by that road.

We have a contract with Kushequa store by which we transport their market car twice a week from Kushequa to Westline and return, accompanied by their messenger, at a compensation of $4.00 a trip.

THE NEW YORK, CHICAGO AND ST. LOUIS RAILROAD COMPANY.

Date of organization: September 27, 1887.

By what authority incorporated: Under the laws of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. As this is a consolidated company, further information is given in answer to question four.

If a consolidated company, name the constituent companies: This company's railroad was built for the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, a consolidated company organized under the laws of the five states above named and composed of constituent companies in the several States, to wit: The Buffalo, Cleveland and Chicago Railway Company of New York, whose articles of association were filed with the Secretary of State about January 15, 1881. The Buffalo, Cleveland and Chicago Railway Company of Pennsylvania, whose articles of association were filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth about January 15, 1881. The New York and Chicago Railway Company of Ohio, whose articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State about March 15, 1881. The New York and Chicago Railway Company of Indiana, whose articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State March 4, 1881. The New York and Chicago Railway Company of Illinois, whose articles of organization were filed with the Secretary of State March 23, 1881. All of the constituent companies were incorporated under the general railroad laws of their respective States, to wit: General railroad laws of New York, entitled An act to authorize the formation of the railroad companies and to regulate the same, passed April 2, 1850. In Pennsylvania, An act to authorize the formation and regulation of railroad corporations, approved April 4, 1868. In Ohio, sections 3236 to 3245 of revised statutes. In Indiana, sections 3885 to 3888 of revised statutes. In Illinois, chapter 114 of revised statutes, sections 1 to 6. The constituent companies were consolidated by agreement, dated April 8, 1881, under the general laws of the five states named, to which reference is made as follows: In New York, chapter 917 of the laws of 1869, entitled An act authorizing the consolidation of certain railroad companies. In Pennsylvania, An act supplementary to an act regulating railroad companies, approved the 17th day of February, A. D. 1849; approved 24th of March, 1865. In Ohio, sections 3380 to 3385 of revised statutes. In Indiana, section 3971 of revised statutes. In Illinois, chapter 32 of revised statutes, sections 50 to 57. By reason of the foreclosure of mortgages upon its railway, it was sold in May, 1887. Companies incorporated under the laws of the five States above named, respectively bought from the purchasers the portions in their respective States. These companies, with the dates of their incorporation, were as follows: The New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad Company of New York, whose articles of association were filed with the Secretary of State June 22, 1887. The Erie and State Line Railroad Company of Pennsylvania, whose articles of association were filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth June 27, 1887. The Cleveland and State Line Railroad Company of Ohio, whose articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State August 15, 1887. The Fort Wayne and Illinois Railroad Company, whose certificate of incorporation was filed with the Secretary of State June 28, 1887. The Chicago and State Line Railroad Company, whose articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State June 30, 1887. All were organized under the general railroad laws of the several States to which reference is given above.

Agreement for consolidation of the constituent companies in New York and Pennsylvania, dated July 7, 1887, and filed with the Secretary of State August 15, 1887. Name of consolidated company: The New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad Company. Agreement for consolidation of above named consolidated company with constituent companies in Ohio and Indiana filed with the Secretary of State September 27, 1887. Lease of Chicago and State Line Railroad from the Chicago and State Line Railroad Company to the Fort Wayne and Illinois Railroad Company dated September 20, 1887. As this company is the owner of the capital stock of the Chicago and State Line Railroad Company, which does not keep up an independent organization for the purpose of distributing income, the lease is treated as effecting a consolidation in fact. Consolidation was effected under the laws of the several states referred to above, except the lease of the Chicago and State Line Railroad Company, which was made by authority of chapter 114, section 34 of revised statutes of Illinois, and section 3973 of revised statutes of Indiana.

QUESTIONS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION.

What provision, if any, has been made by this road for the payment of its funded debt: The mortgage provides that if the road earns in any year, ending September 30, the sum of nine hundred thousand dollars, or more over actual operating expenses of such year, that it will pay to the trustee an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, to be applied by it to the purchase of bonds, providing the bonds can be purchased at a rate not exceeding 102 per cent, and accrued interest. If in any year, ending September 30, the road shall not have earned nine hundred thousand dollars over operating expenses, or if any such year bonds cannot be purchased at the rate stated above, then the payment provided for in the mortgage need not be made to the trustee.

Name all the associations to which this road is a party, whose object is the regulation or control of passenger or freight traffic: Central Traffic association.

Name all the companies, commonly called fast freight lines, of which this road is a member, or which operate over the line of this road: Lackawanna Line, Nickle Plate Line, Traders' Despatch, Interstate Despatch, South West Despatch and White Line Central Transit Company.

NEW YORK, PENNSYLVANIA AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY.

Date of organization: 29th March, 1880.

By what authority incorporated: Under Ohio law passed 11th March, 1880, Volume 77, page 60. An act supplementary to the revised statutes of Ohio—title two, chapters one and two, enable purchasers of railroads at judicial sale to become incorporated.

Under the general laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and under laws of the State of New York, of 1879, page 556. An act to facilitate the foreclosure of mortgages made by consolidated companies of railroads partly within and partly without the State, passed 16th June, 1879.

The New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company has made an indenture dated 30th April, 1883, leasing for a term of ninety-nine years, commencing with the 1st May, 1883, the main line, branches and leased lines of this company, with its fixtures and equipment, and has operated the said railroad since that time. The rental under the lease is based upon earnings. October 1, 1889, the lease was amended so that the rental is 32 per cent. of the gross earnings up to six million dollars, and a reduction in rental of one-tenth of one per cent. on the total gross earnings for each additional one hundred thousand dollars in excess of six millions dollars, until the gross earnings amounts to eight millions dollars, and when the earnings equal or exceed the sum of nine millions dollars the rental will be 28 per cent. of the gross earnings.

This company will report the earnings from rental, etc., and the financial condition, and the lessee company will report the physical characteristics and the operations.

If a consolidated company, name the constituent companies: The constituent companies were the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad Company of Ohio, and the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad Company of Pennsylvania, and the said consolidated companies became entitled to operate a road in New York State by virtue of a law of the State of New York of 18th June, 1873.

The certificate of incorporation of the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad Company of Ohio filed in the office of the Secretary of the State of Ohio 16th March, 1880.

The certificate of incorporation of the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad Company of Pennsylvania filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania 17th March, 1880.

Under the laws of the State of New York, the Secretary of State of the State of New York issued his certificate, that certain documents called for in said quoted law were filed in his office on 15th April, 1880.

Operated by the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company, Lessee.

The Cleveland and Mahoning Valley Railway Company owns the Cleveland and Mahoning Railroad, the Niles and New Lisbon Railway and the Liberty and Vienna Railroad, and leases said railroads to this company for a fixed yearly rental of $514,180.00. Lease to terminate on 1st October, 1962.

The Westerman Railroad belongs to Christian H. Buhl, of Detroit, Michigan, and is leased to this company from January 1, 1886, to May 1, 1962, at a rental of $4,000.00 per year.

The Sharon Railway own the Sharon Railway and leases it to this company for 6 per cent. per annum on $453,350.00, capital stock, and 5 5-8 per cent., per annum on $164,000.00, first mortgage bonds, which two amounts represent the cost of road, and for any additional improvements the rental will be increased 6 per cent. per annum upon the cost of the additional improvements, which are paid for by the Sharon Railway by the issue of capital stock at its par value. Lease is for a term ending April 30, 1962.

The New Castle and Shenango Valley Railway Company own the New Castle and Shenango Valley Railroad, and leases it to this company for a rental of 32 per cent. of the gross earnings of said road after deducting for the hire of equipment. Lease dated March 1, 1889, and is for a term of ninety-nine years.

The Youngstown and Austintown Railway Company owned the Youngstown and Austintown Railway, which is a branch diverging at Youngstown, Ohio, and running to coal mines, and is operated under a lease dated April 25, 1883, at a rental based on 6 per cent. of the valuation.

These several lines are sub-leased to the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company, and are included in the lease of this company's property, and leased lines to said company.

IMPORTANT CHANGES DURING THE YEAR.

The State Line and Indiana City Railway was extended ninety-two one-hundredth mile, and correction was made in the records showing apparent increase of two one-hundredth mile in that part of the T. W. V. & O. R. R. between Coshocton and West Londonville, Ohio, the same being 45.42 miles, instead of 45.40 miles, as reported last year.

QUESTIONS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION.

What provision, if any, has been made by this road for the payment of its funded debt: Sinking fund four and one-half per cent. first mortgage bonds. The contributions to this fund are one per cent. per annum on outstanding bonds, and interest on such bonds as shall have been purchased with same fund.

Sinking fund six per cent registered bonds. The contribution to this fund is the remainder of $230,000.00 (being dividend of seven per cent. on $4,000,000.00 Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Company Betterment stock), after paying the quarterly interest on outstanding bonds.

Lease from the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company executed January 6, 1862, to take effect from and after January 1, 1862, modified January 1, 1870, for the term of 999 years from January 1, 1862. The lessee to work, use, maintain, manage and efficiently operate and keep in public use the railroad of the party of the first part and its appurtenances, "with the exclusive right to manage and control said railroad and to regulate and determine rates of tolls, freight and charges for all the transportation over the whole or any part of said railroad," and to collect all said tolls and charges.

The lessee to repair and maintain in good order and condition for public use the railroad property and appurtenances, paying all operating and other expenses, including taxes and assessments levied or assessed by the laws of the United States or the State of Pennsylvania.

The surplus of gross receipts after the payment of expenses aforesaid to be applied to defraying the cost of maintaining a proper and legal organization of the lessor company and the payment of interest on the funded debt of said lessor.

Whatever balance may remain after said payments to be paid to the lessor for its own use. The lessee is not to pay or become liable to pay in consequence of any deficiency of gross receipts for all or any part or either of the purposes to which it had been agreed that said surplus should be applied.

PHILADELPHIA, WILMINGTON AND BALTIMORE RAILROAD COMPANY.

Date of organization: April 2, 1831.

By what authority incorporated: The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company is a corporation organized under the laws of the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland.

If a consolidated company, name the constituent companies: The present Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company is a consolidated company, formed by the merger under date of March 28, 1877, under authority of an act of Pennsylvania of May 16, 1861, and an act of Delaware of February 22, 1877, of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company, New Castle and Frenchtown Turnpike and Railroad Company, chartered by act of the State of Delaware of February 7, 1829; New Castle and Wilmington Railroad Company, chartered by act of State of Delaware of February 9, 1839, and the Southwark Railroad Company, chartered by act of the State of Pennsylvania of April 2, 1831.

The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company, which was a party to that consolidation was organized February 5, 1838, by the consolidation under authority of an act of Delaware, of February 4th, 1833, and an act of Maryland, of January 20, 1833, and an act of Pennsylvania, of December 19, 1837, of the following companies: (1) The Philadelphia and Delaware County Railroad Company, chartered by act of the State of Pennsylvania of April 2, 1831; name changed to Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company, by act of March 14, 1836. (2) The Wilmington and Susquehanna Railroad Company, chartered by act of the State of Delaware, of January 18, 1832, into which the Delaware and Maryland Railroad Company, chartered by act of the State of Maryland, of March 14, 1832, had been merged, by authority of the act of Delaware, of February 4, 1833, act of Delaware of July 24, 1835, an act of Maryland of March 14, 1836. (3) The Baltimore and Port Deposit Railroad Company, chartered by act of Maryland, of March 5, 1832.

The following is a reference to the acts of incorporation and acts supplementary to or amendatory thereof, of each of the companies now constituting the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company.

CONTRACTS, AGREEMENTS, ETC.

Express: The Adams Express Company pays this company 40 per cent. of its gross receipts from general traffic, and 70 per cent. of gross receipts from oyster traffic.

Mails: The compensation for transportation of mails is a fixed annual rate per mile of road, determined by extent of actual service performed, based on weight of mails carried for thirty consecutive days during each quadrennial period. Additional compensation is allowed for special fast service and also for postal car service.

Sleeping, parlor or dining car companies: Pullman's Palace Car Company, furnishes its cars for use over the lines of this company, maintaining the same and collecting from passengers from twenty-five cents to $2.50 each for single seat or berth according to distance, in addition to railroad fare collected by this company. In case cars running between Pittsburgh, Pa., and Indianapolis, Ind., via Dayton, Ohio, fail to earn for the Pullman Company an average of $7,500 per car per annum, this company pays the Pullman Company, three cents per car per mile run by its cars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to increase the average gross earnings to $7,500 per car per annum. It also furnishes the dining cars run between Pittsburgh, Pa., and Indianapolis, Ind., for which this company pays a fixed rental and keeps the cars in repair; the Pullman Company operating them as agent of this company.

Freight or transportation companies or lines: The Star Union Line transacts business at current rates, the expenses of conducting the same being borne by the roads over which it operates, in the proportion of the earnings therefrom of each to the whole. Customary rates are also paid for the use of Union Line cars.

Other railroad companies: Rental is received and paid under contract with other companies.

Telegraph companies: The Western Union Telegraph Company is granted the privilege of use of this company's lines, paying a fixed rental therefor.

Other contracts: The Union News Company pays a fixed rental for certain privileges granted. The Travelers' Insurance Company pays a proportion of its gross receipts at sundry stations for privileges and facilities granted thereat.

The Wells, Fargo & Company Express has charge of the express business for which it pays this company forty per cent. of its gross earnings from the transportation of express matter over this road, guaranteeing that the percentage "shall at least equal the sum of $10,000.00 per annum."

The United States mails are carried between Butler and Erie, Linesville and Meadville, Branchtown and Hilliard. The annual compensation for carrying same is fixed for four years by the weighing of mails for thirty days in advance or about the close of each previous quadrennial period.

The sleeping, parlor or dining room cars are run regularly on this road, and no arrangements have yet been made for same.

In April, 1892, this company became a member of the Nickle Plate Line, Lackawanna Line and Traders' Despatch (Fast Freight Line), which have since operated on the line of this road.

Under an agreement taking effect June 15, 1891, this company has been running passenger trains on the main line of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad between Wallace Junction and Cascade, Pa. (twelve and four-tenth miles), for which this company pays that company a percentage of the revenue derived from passenger business to and from Erie, Pa. Since May 29, 1893, this company has also been running freight trains over the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad between Wallace Junction and Cascade, paying that company for each loaded car.

M., C., L. & L. R. R. leased by this company for 99 years from June, 1891, for twenty-five per cent. of gross earnings.

No contracts, agreements or arrangements with any steamboat or steamship companies. The Western Union Telegraph Company has charge of the commercial telegraph business on the line of this road.

CONTRACTS, AGREEMENTS, ETC.

The Adams Express Company pays this company forty per cent. of its gross receipts from general traffic and seventy per cent. of gross receipts from oyster traffic.

The compensation for transportation of mails is a fixed annual rate per mile of road, determined by the extent of the service performed, based upon the actual weight of mails carried for thirty consecutive days during each quadrennial period.

Pullman's Palace Car Company furnishes its cars for use over this road, maintaining the same and collecting from passengers 25 cents to $2.50 each for single seat or berth, according to distance, in addition to the regular railroad fare collected by this company.

The Star Union Line transacts business at current rates, the expenses of conducting the same being borne by the roads over which it operates, in proportion of the earnings therefrom of each to the whole. Customary rates are also paid for the use of Union Line cars.

The Western Union Telegraph Company pays a fixed sum for certain telegraph privileges and also receives a proportion of the receipts and pays a proportion of the expenses of the telegraph line located on a certain part of the right of way of the Pittsburgh, Youngstown and Ashtabula railroad.

The Union News Company pays a fixed rental for use of certain privileges granted.

The Travelers' Insurance Company pays a proportion of its gross receipts at sundry stations for privileges and facilities granted thereat.

POMEROY AND NEWARK RAILROAD COMPANY.

Date of organization: December 29, 1881.

By what authority incorporated: The Doe Run and White Clay Creek Railroad Company was organized under an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, approved March 24, 1868.

The name of the company was changed to the Pennsylvania and Delaware Railway Company by act of Assembly approved April 20, 1869.

The Delaware and Pennsylvania Railroad Company was organized under an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Delaware, passed February 26, 1857.

The Pennsylvania and Delaware Railway Company and the Delaware and Pennsylvania Railroad Company were consolidated and merged into one company under the name and title of the Pennsylvania and Delaware Railway Company, by authority of the laws of the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware, a joint agreement dated March 17, 1873, being filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania May 3, 1873.

The Pennsylvania and Delaware railway was sold under foreclosure of mortgage August 12, 1879, which sale was confirmed absolutely by the circuit court of the United States for the eastern district of Pennsylvania, October 25, 1879.

On February 5, 1880, a new corporation was organized, entitled the Pomeroy and State Line Railroad Company, for that portion of the railroad extending from Pomeroy in Chester county, Pennsylvania, to the boundary line between the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware, under the provisions of an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, approved April 8, 1861, and the supplements thereto. The certificate of reorganization was filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, February 26, 1880.

A corporation under the name of the Newark and Delaware City Railroad Company, for that portion of the railroad extending from the boundary line between the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware, to Delaware City, was organized on March 29, 1880, in pursuance of an act of the Legislature of Delaware passed March 27, 1879.

Under the authority of an act of the Legislature of the State of Delaware passed March 19, 1881, the portion of the Newark and Delaware City railroad lying between the north line right of right of way of the main line of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad and Delaware City was sold to the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company. Under the authority of the same act the residue of the railroad lying between the said northern line of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad and the State line was consolidated and merged into the Pomeroy and State Line railroad, the name of the consolidated company being changed to the Pomeroy and Newark Railroad Company. The agreement of consolidation and merger was dated December 2, 1881, copies of which were filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania December 29, 1881, and with the Secretary of the State of Delaware December 3, 1881.

Operated by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

SOUTH EASTON AND PHILLIPSBURG RAILROAD COMPANY.

(The property of the South Easton and Phillipsburg Railroad Company is operated by the Lehigh and Hudson River Railway Company. The capital stock is owned by this company, and its earnings and operating expenses are included in the reports of the Lehigh and Hudson Railway Company as of that company.

The property of the South Easton and Phillipsburg Railroad consists substantially of a bridge across the Delaware river at Phillipsburg, New Jersey, connecting the Belvidere Delaware division of the Pennsylvania Railroad (over which the Lehigh and Hudson River Railway Company have trackage rights between Belvidere and Phillipsburg), with the tracks of the Lehigh Valley and Central Railroad of New Jersey at Easton, Pa. The bridge and road proper is 1,723 1-2 feet long, with one-fourth mile approaches, and we make no separation of the earnings and operating expenses over this bridge, it formed a part of our line.

CONTRACTS, AGREEMENTS, ETC.

Adams Express Company pay the Stewartstown Railroad Company 10 per cent. on gross receipts and 10 per cent. per 100 for transportation.

The United States Government pay the Stewartstown Railroad Company $355.53 for carrying the mail.

Have joint freight rates with the Northern Central Railway Company, in which freight charges are based on a constructive distance of twenty miles for points on the Stewartstown Railroad, the Northern Central Railway allowing us arbitrary rates for our proportion of earnings.

To encourage the building of the Stewartstown Railroad the Northern Central Railway Company contracted with the Stewartstown Railroad Company under date of December 26, 1884, to pay the Stewartstown company 15 per cent. on gross earnings accruing to said road on all business originating on or consigned to points on the Stewartstown road and destined to or consigned to Baltimore or Harrisburg, or intermediate points of the Northern Central Railway for a period of ten years.

During July, 1894, this contract was renewed for five years.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

Date of original charter is June 9, 1890. The company was organized shortly before date of charter and was granted right of way through the borough of Braddock October 20, 1890, and through the township of Braddock February 7, 1891.

The company has caused to be built about three and three-fourths miles of track and has equipped the same with five vestibule cars with two motors each. Has a large power house and car barn combined and machinery of three hundred horse power capacity for operating said plant.

The road was operated from April 12, 1892, until January 9, 1893, when by an adverse decision of the supreme court our line was cut into two parts, necessitating suspension of the operation until arrangements could be made to connect them up again. On August 6, 1894, Braddock council passed an ordinance granting the company right of way to make a connection and it is expected to begin operations soon.

CHARACTERISTICS OF ROAD.

Route of road, streets occupied and connections: Beginning on Talbot avenue in the borough of Braddock, at Second street, thence by Talbot avenue to Thirteenth street, thence by Thirteenth street to a township road called Bell avenue, thence by said township road to Doaker's hollow, thence returning by said township road and along Bell avenue to a township road which is an extension of Burton street (now called Library) in the borough of Braddock, thence by said township road to Charles street, thence by Charles street and township road to another township road called "Fourth street road," at a point near Copeland station, Pennsylvania railroad, thence by said township road and Fourth street to Mills street, in the borough of Braddock, thence by Mills street to Second street, thence by Second street to Talbot avenue, thence by Talbot avenue to Eighth street, thence by Eighth street to Braddock avenue, thence crossing Braddock avenue to Burton street, thence by Burton street and township road to Bell avenue; returning by same route to place of beginning, the circuit being completed by means of turn-outs and switches.

Capital stock $100,000 divided into 2,000 shares.

Application for charter made and obtained January 11, 1892. On May 1, 1892, construction of the road began and a portion of the track was laid on Front, Washington, Meadow Lane, and Berryhill streets, Harrisburg, Pa., also on Third, Walnut, Short, Spruce, North, Elder, Margarette, New Fourth, Maclay and Pennsylvania avenue all streets in the city of Harrisburg.

During the year 1892, the line having been extended from time to time that the tracks now occupy streets in townships of Susquehanna and Swatara, borough of Steelton, and villages occupy additional streets in townships of Susquehanna and Swatara, borough of Steelton and villages of Enhaut and Oberlin. At the annual meeting of January 9, 1893, after the resignation of Messrs. Snavelly, Page and F. H. Alleman as directors, the following new directors were elected F. E. Walze, Geo. R. Alleman and B. F. Meyers. Upon the declination of J. A. Dunkel, as president. B. F. Meyers was elected president.

On January 25, 1893, the stockholders voted for an increase of capital stock from $100,000 to $200,000. On October 31, 1893, the stockholders again met and voted for an increase of capital stock from $200,000 to $350,000. At the annual meeting of stockholders on January 8, 1894, the present officers of the company were duly elected.

The operation of the road was first started October 12, 1892, with four cars, which number has been increased to twenty-two up to date. Power station is located at Steelton. Three Westinghouse generators of 300 and 150 Kilo Watt capacity are belted direct to the Harrisburg Foundry and Machine Company, tandem compound condensing engines. Boiler plant consists of four one hundred and fifty horse power boilers furnished by the same company.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

Incorporated January 25, 1890, under act of March 22, 1887. Consent of councils of city of Pittsburgh granted on February 28, 1890, to enter upon streets occupied by street railways which should be operated by or supplied with motive power by the Duquesne Traction Company.

The construction of the company's power plant, shops, overhead lines and appliances were provided with and so far completed that in the latter part of February, 1891, a considerable part of its overhead lines were constructed and its power plant set in operation for the purpose of testing the same.

The main portion of the power house was then destroyed by fire and the electric apparatus so injured that they were unfit for use. The reconstruction of the power house was at once proceeded with, the power plant rebuilt and the company began operations on part of its lines on May 21, 1891.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

Organized June 25, 1889.

Construction has been seriously delayed by various obstacles so that the road is only partially constructed. An injunction restraining the railway company from crossing a county bridge within the city limits was obtained by the county commissioners and is now pending in the Supreme Court.

The road is in consequence operated at a loss in order to save its franchises until these obstacles can be removed.

CHARACTERISTICS OF ROAD.

Route of road, streets occupied and connections: Main street to and over Relief Bridge Company's bridge to Central avenue; thence to first street; thence to city limits upon First street; thence upon public road half a mile. Branch from Central avenue eastward upon First and Second streets, five-eighths of one mile.

No connections with any other road.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

On March 29, 1892, articles of association were entered into at Coraopolis, Pa., by a number of the residents of Coraopolis borough and Neville Island (Neville township), Allegheny county, Pa., and an application made for a charter of the company which was duly granted April 4, 1893.

Negotiations were at once entered into for the necessary rights of way and consent of the local authorities, the last of which was only obtained in June, 1893.

Plans and specifications for the construction and equipment of the road were prepared and proposals solicited. The contract for construction of the road was entered into on July 8, 1893, and on March 1, 1894, the work had progressed so far that cars were put in operation between Chartiers avenue in McKee's Rocks borough, the eastern terminus of the line, and the foot of Neville Island, a distance of about seven and one-half miles. At this point some delay was experienced in extending the line pending the completion of the Coraopolis and Neville Island bridge. On July 24, 1894, the bridge had reached such a stage of completion as to permit the running of cars over it, and on that day traffic was opened to the western terminus of the line at Thorn street, in the borough of Coraopolis. Since that date no interruption to the running of the company's cars has occurred.

CHARACTERISTICS OF ROAD.

Route of road, streets occupied and connections: The route of the Pittsburgh, Neville Island and Coraopolis railway is as follows: Beginning at its connection with the Pittsburgh and West End Passenger railway at the intersection of Chartiers avenue with the "river road" in the borough of McKees' Rocks; thence by the said "river road," an unnamed avenue on the Robb and Munson property, Munson avenue, Ella street and Helena avenue in the borough of McKees' Rocks to an unnamed alley on the property of Mrs. Nettie McKee Graham, in Stowe township, Allegheny county; thence by the said alley, an unnamed sixty foot street, on unnamed sixty foot avenue, an unnamed forty foot street, an unnamed twenty foot alley, and an unnamed twenty-five foot way to the Neville Island road in Stowe township aforesaid; thence by the said Neville Island road and county bridge to Neville township, Allegheny county, aforesaid; thence by the Neville Island road and Grand or Neville avenue on said Neville Island to a bridge across the back channel of the Ohio river at Coraopolis borough; thence by said bridge to Fesser street in said Coraopolis borough, and thence by said Fesser street and Fourth avenue to Thorn street in said borough of Coraopolis, the western terminus of the line. The entire length of the route is approximately eight and three-fourths miles.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

The Shamokin Street Railway Company was chartered July 24, 1889, for a term of 99 years, with a capital stock of $12,000.00. On September 4, 1889, the stockholders passed a resolution increasing the capital to $30,000.00. This sum being found insufficient for the work contemplated, the stockholders at another meeting held on November 23, 1891, had the capital further increased to $50,000.00; and again at a meeting held May 2, 1892, there was a further increase to $80,000.00, of which $53,250.00 has been subscribed and paid for. On July 27, 1892, the stockholders authorized a mortgage of $30,000.00 upon the plant and franchises of the company, and the whole amount of bonds have been issued.

On July 11, 1891, the road was opened to the public and has been running successfully since that date.

At a meeting of the stockholders held August 10, 1891, a resolution was passed authorizing the directors to purchase 88 shares of the stock of the Shamokin Electric Light and Power Company, which was accordingly done. These 88 shares represent the controlling interest in the Shamokin Electric Light and Power Company.

On November 14, 1891, the Shamokin Street Railway Company entered into an agreement with the Shamokin Electric Light and Power Company to furnish them electric current for light and power for a period of 20 years, at a stipulated rental. Dynamos and additional engines were then placed in the power house to meet this new demand.

During October, 1891, the railway was extended to Second and Walnut streets, and in the spring of 1893 the tracks were again extended a little over a mile to a park west of Shamokin, branching off at the intersection of Second and Water streets, in the borough of Shamokin, and running through said Water street to Cliff street, in the town plat of West Shamokin, and thence through Arch street to the park, and in the spring of 1894 the route was again changed from the intersection of Arch and Ash streets, running thence through Ash, Laurel and Chestnut streets to the park.

CHARACTERISTICS OF ROAD.

Route of road, streets occupied and connections: Beginning at power house on corner of Pine and Pearl streets, thence west over Pine street to Shamokin street, north over Shamokin street to Independence street, west over Independence to Market, south over Market to Spruce street, west over Spruce to Second street, north over Second to Water street, thence west over Water street to Cliff street, west over Cliff to Arch street, over Arch to Ash, over Ash to Alley, over Alley to Laurel street, and over Laurel to Chestnut street, and again west over Chestnut to west side of "West Shamokin," thence by direct route to the park, which is the western terminus of the road.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

The company was organized in August, 1890, and the council of the borough of Uniontown requested to grant the privilege to use the streets of the town, which they did by ordinance passed August 14, 1890. An application was then made for a charter, which was granted on the 29th day of August, 1890. Articles were entered into on the 5th day of November, 1890, with the Edison General Electric Company for the electrical construction and equipment of the road, including the power and three cars of the Brill pattern. Also a contract was signed and entered into at the same time with A. E. Townsend for the track construction. The road was completed and a successful run made over it on the 6th day of May, 1891. The cars began to run regularly on the 9th day of May, 1891, and continued to run until the 11th day of January, 1892, when the power house and car barn, with all their contents, were destroyed by fire. We immediately began to rebuild the plant and had it in operation again May 1, 1892, since which time it has been running continuously.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

The original charter bears date the fourth day of August, eighteen hundred and ninety, and letters patent were issued under the provisions of the act of Assembly approved the fourteenth day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

The articles of association provide for constructing a railway on Market street, New street, Ashbridge avenue, High street and Rosedale avenue in the borough of West Chester.

By a resolution of the board of directors, passed at a stated meeting held March 31, 1891. It was "Resolved that the West Chester Street Railway Company deem it necessary for the increase of the business of the road and the accommodation of the travel of the public that an extension or branch be laid and constructed from the tracks of the company in the borough of West Chester, through and over land in said borough, and in the township of East Bradford, Birmingham and Paepson, by and with the consent of the local authorities, to Lenape station, on the Wilmington and Northern Railroad."

A copy of the minutes authorizing the extension or branch has been recorded and an exemplification of the said record was filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth on or about April 19, 1891.

The original capital stock of the road was $30,000, but afterwards at a meeting of the stockholders the capital stock was increased to $80,000.

The Lenape branch was completed and cars commenced running on it November 10, 1891.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

The Williamsport Passenger Railway Company was incorporated under special act of Assembly approved 15 April, 1863 (P. L. 1864, page 1060, etc). The corporation was duly organized in accordance with the provisions of this act, and a railway constructed in the city of Williamsport from P. & E. railroad, crossing on West Fourth street, eastwardly along said West Fourth street to Pine street, thence southwardly on Pine to West Third street, thence easterly on Third street to a point near the intersection of the P. & E. railroad. The original rails laid were the small T rail. The road was operated with limited success until 1879, when the stock changed hands and a new management took possession of the road and renewed the track with 38 pound, centre bearing steel rails and paving with stone the entire length of the road between the rails. In February, 1887, the company resolved to extend its tracks on West Third street, westerly from Pine to Grier street, and also on East Fourth street from Pine to Basin, with connecting tracks on Basin, Grier and Campbell streets. Materials were placed on the ground for these extensions; but, before the tracks were laid, the city of Williamsport intromvened by injunction, restraining the company from laying the tracks without first having obtained permission from the city authorities. This was resisted by the railway company and resulted in a decision by the supreme court of the State affirming the right of the railway company to lay its tracks and operate its road on any of the streets, lanes or alleys of the city of Williamsport, without municipal interference. (See case Williamsport Passenger Railway Company's appeal. 120 Penn'a State report, page 1, etc). The company proceeded after this decision in its favor, to lay its tracks on the streets above designated, and also on West Fourth street from the P. & E. railroad crossing westerly to Lycoming creek. The rails used were 42 pound, steel centre bearing rail, and stone paving between the rails the entire length of the road. The extensions were completed by September 1, 1888, and two lines of cars have since been running as designated elsewhere in this report.

October 1, 1890, the stock of the company changed hands and came under new management; steps were taken to improve the entire road. During the summer of 1891, the old track was taken up and relaid with sixty pound Wharton side bearing wide tread steel rail and repaved between rails with stone, viz: from East Third street at Philadelphia and Erie railroad crossing west to Basin street, single track; from Basin on Third street west to Pine street, double track; from Third and Pine street, on Pine street to Fourth street, single track; from Pine on Fourth west to Park street, double track; from Park, west to the car house on Philadelphia and Erie railroad crossing, single track. The trolley electric system was adopted as the motor power. Cars electrically equipped were put on the road and the entire service has been electrical since September, 1891. During the year 1898, the road was extended into the old town of Newberry or the Seventh ward of the city of Williamsport.

CHARACTERISTICS OF ROAD.

For information relating to this report, address John Flanagan, secretary and treasurer, Manayunk, Pa.

What kind of power is used for propelling the cars on your road: Electricity.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

This road has a State charter dated October 8, 1890.

The capital stock was one thousand (1,000) shares of fifty ($50) dollars each, subsequently increased to five thousand (5,000) shares of fifty ($50) dollars each.

This company was organized to form a rail connection between Wissahickon and Roxborough and between Manayunk and Roxborough; the main thoroughfares being via Manayunk avenue from Wissahickon to Roxborough and Leverington avenue and Wood and Levering streets, from Roxborough to Manayunk. Authority was granted by the city councils of Philadelphia to this company to construct and operate this road by ordinance, approved by the mayor, March 30, 1893. On September 30, 1893, the road was completed between Wissahickon and Roxborough and the company started to run cars between these points. The balance of the road to Manayunk not being constructed. In March, 1894, preparations were made to lay the road to Manayunk, and on May 24, 1894, that portion of the road running to Pennsylvania railroad station Manayunk, was so far completed as to permit the running of the cars. The line leading to Philadelphia and Reading railroad station, Manayunk via Wood and Levering streets is now about being constructed.

Our road being still unfinished, our report will therefore be somewhat incomplete.

CHARACTERISTICS OF ROAD.

Route of road, streets occupied and connections: The route at present is as follows: Sumac street and the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, east to Manayunk avenue, thence to Lyceum avenue, thence to Mitchell street, thence to Leverington avenue, thence to Ridge avenue, thence west on Leverington avenue to Chestnut street, thence to Centre street (Pennsylvania railroad station) the present terminus.

 The general offices of the company are located at Dayton, Pa.
 Address correspondence relating to this report to B. S. Pontius, Secretary.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

The Armstrong Telephone Company was the result of a meeting of citizens of Dayton and vicinity called for consultation. The enterprise was largely aided through the columns of the Dayton News, the local paper of the place.

By personal effort the stock was raised—capital $3,000 at $25 per share. Of these shares 96 have been sold.

A charter was obtained April 11, 1893, contracts were given and the line completed by July, 1893, since when the line has been in successful operation.

The points connected are Dayton with Kittanning, Pa.,—a line of about 23 miles with intervening stations at Echo, Bryan and Rural Valley. The points are all of but small proportions, except Kittanning, and the line is considered more as a personal convenience than as any source of profit.

Five Bell telephones are in use at a rental of $30 each per annum.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

The Central District and Printing Telegraph Company was originally incorporated in the State of New York on April 14, 1874, under the provisions of an act, entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of telegraph companies" passed April 12th, 1848, and of the acts additional thereto and amendatory thereof, for the purpose of owning, constructing, using and maintaining a line or lines of electric telegraph, etc.

The route of line as defined in its articles of incorporation was as follows, viz: From Jamestown, Chautauqua county, New York, to Mansfield, Ohio, thence to Wheeling, West Virginia, thence to Pittsburgh, Pa.

The company was engaged for a time in the business of building electric telegraph lines in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., and vicinity and leasing them to private firms and individuals at an annual rental. This company in most cases owning and maintaining the lines and the firms or individuals leasing them and operating them. The "Morse" telegraph instruments on these lines were in a majority of cases superseded by "Gray's Automatic Printing Telegraph Instruments" and these in turn were superseded by telephones. On August 10, 1881, The Central District and Printing Telegraph Company became a corporation under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania by accepting the provisions of the law enacted on June 9, 1881, "authorizing foreign corporations to become corporations in the State of Pennsylvania and prescribing the method of their doing so" for the purpose of carrying on the business of constructing, owning, leasing and operating telegraph and telephone lines, buying, selling and dealing in electrical apparatus and supplies, etc., with the principle office located in Pittsburgh, Pa. The corporation under the laws of the State of New York was then dissolved and its charter renounced and annulled.

The principal business of the company since its incorporation in the State of Pennsylvania has been and is at present, that of furnishing telephone service to its subscribers and leasing telephone and telegraph lines to private parties; it is also engaged in the District Messenger business in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

The organization of the company was effected on the 24th of September, 1880. Telephone lines had been previously established by private parties in Williamsport, Phillipsburg, Bellefonte, Altoona, Milton and Shamokin. The chartered limits of the company include the counties of Centre, Clinton, Clearfield, Cameron, Columbia, Blair, Huntingdon, Juniata, Montour, Mifflin, Snyder, Sullivan, Northumberland, Union and Lycoming, and such other territory as might be thereafter acquired. In January, 1884, the company acquired the property and rights of the North Pennsylvania Telephone Company, comprising the counties of Luzerne, Lackawanna and Wyoming. In January, 1888, the county of Elk was acquired from the Central District and Printing Telegraph Company of Pittsburgh. The company now has telephone exchanges established and in operation in all the principle cities and towns in the territory covered by its charter and the district has been fully occupied and ample telephone communication furnished to the public. The entire district has its various centres or telephone exchanges connected with each other by wire as well as lines connecting the territory of the Pennsylvania Telephone Company via Mt. Carmel and via Hazleton.

In May, 1890, the company began the erection of long distance metallic circuit lines eastward from Williamsport to connect with the circuits of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company at Hazleton, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, with intermediate stations en-route connected, which lines were completed and put in operation August 1, 1890.

Long distance metallic circuit lines of this company from Williamsport westward to Altoona with intermediate stations connected, were completed and put in operation June 1, 1892.

The territory of DuBois, with a radius of five miles in Clearfield county, was transferred to the Central District and Printing Telegraph Company of Pittsburgh as of January 1, 1892.

Long distance metallic circuit lines of this company from Tyrone northward to Phillipsburg coal regions were completed and put in operation August 1, 1892.

Long distance metallic circuit lines of this company from Phillipsburg to Clearfield were completed and put in operation November 1, 1892.

Long distance metallic circuit lines of this company from Clearfield to Ridgway via DuBois were completed and put in operation June 1, 1893.

Long distance metallic circuit lines of this company from Milton to Mt. Carmel via Sunbury and Shamokin were completed and put in operation October 16, 1898.

Additional long distance metallic circuit wires were erected between Wilkes-Barre and Hazleton and put in operation June 1, 1894.

Long distance metallic circuit lines of this company from Scranton, Pa., to Carbondale, Pa., are in process of erection.

The completion and occupancy of a new central office building at Scranton, Pa., on March 1, 1894.

For the capital stock, general business, receipts and expenditures of the company, reference is made to the other parts of this report.

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION AND CONSTRUCTION.

The company was incorporated by act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, approved May 10, A. D. 1871, under the title of The Printing Machine Telegraph Company.

The first section of said act of incorporation sets forth and recites among other things as follows: That the corporation, upon the filing of a certificate in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, may change name of said corporation.

At a meeting of the board of directors of The Printing Machine Telegraph Company held in the city of Philadelphia on April 26, 1872, a resolution was offered and unanimously adopted by the board, changing the name of said corporation to that of The Philadelphia Local Telegraph Company and authorizing a certificate to that effect to be deposited and filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, which was done April 30, 1872.

Branch offices are established throughout the city of Philadelphia and are connected with the main office by the construction of telegraph lines at this time, which wires with trifling extensions have been maintained up to the present time.

The company furnishes quotations and time service to brokers and others, and maintains private lines to manufacturing firms.
